

Presents

Folktales at Dunn Gardens featuring Storyteller Eva Abram

with an afternoon of stories in lovely historic Dunn Gardens

When: Sunday June 1, 2025 at 2 - 3 pm in the Afternoon

Adults and children, age six and above are invited to stroll in "imaginary gardens"
as Eva shares stories fit for this natural setting.

*Are there tales in these trees?
Is a rose by any other name still a rose?
Will the problem of dreaded weeds be solved?*

Anything can happen in stories!

Where: 13533 Northshire Rd NW, Seattle, WA

Historic Dunn Gardens is located in Northwest Seattle in the Broadview neighborhood.

Directions and Tour information are available at dunngardens.org

Cost: $12 per adult $6 for children ages 6 - 12

Space is limited, please come early. Purchase tickets at the door.

Dunn's seven acre gardens were designed by the Olmsted Brothers in 1915
Their vision of the Gardens as a place of timeless grace has been realized with luscious Northwest native plants, meandering paths, and a peek-a-boo view of Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains

See More Photos

More information at seattlestorytellers.org