Carmen Agra Deedy has been a keynote speaker at National Storytelling Network (NSN) conferences. She is the author of 12 children's books and her most recent audio recording is her CD for Martina the Beautiful Cockroach, which includes a reading of the book in both English and Spanish, as well as a performance version of the story. That CD is an ALA Notable Children's Recording and an Odyssey Award Honor. She is host of the four-time Emmy-winning children's program, Love That Book! Her audio collection of twelve short stories, Growing up Cuban in Decatur, Georgia, (Peachtree Publishers, 2004) was named Publishers Weekly 1995 Best Audiobook—Adult Storytelling and received the Parents' Choice Gold Award 1996. Her website is <https://carmenagradeedy.com/>

This New York Times bestselling children's author has won numerous awards and has been an invited speaker at venues that include Columbia University, The Library of Congress, TED, and the Kennedy Center. Born in Havana, Cuba, Carmen Agra Deedy came to the United States as a refugee and like most immigrants sees the world from multiple perspectives. Her personal stories culled from her childhood in Decatur, Georgia, first appeared on NPR's All Things Considered.

Join us for an exceptional event!
