Wisdom would say different situations call for different solutions. And when has this old world been more in need of wisdom? The Crones are gathering, wise in the ways of the world, and these women will enchant you with tales of humor, magic, trickery, loss and love... that speak of how to get from one end of life to the other. Allison Cox, Barbara Fankhauser, Anne Penfound and Julie Strozyk are all fierce females with strong ideas, wills to match, and elders who know how to turn a tale!
