World Storytelling Day is celebrated worldwide, on the Spring Equinox, March 20, or another date nearby.

It all started without much coordination and without the worldwide vision that exists today. Seeds were sown in the '90s beginning in Sweden and then spreading. In 1997, storytellers in Perth, Western Australia coordinated a five-week-long Celebration of Story, commemorating March 20 as the International Day of Oral Narrators. At the same time, in Mexico and other Latin American countries, March 20 was already celebrated as the National Day of Storytellers. And like stories, the storytelling day traveled: to 25 countries by 2005, and now World Storytelling Day is celebrated worldwide.

World Storytelling Day has a theme around which the storytellers tell their stories each year. The storytellers are free to choose their stories, but most try to connect to the theme. In Germany, I have told stories in past years, during years with themes such as Monsters & Dragons, Wishes, and Strong Women.

The theme of World Storytelling Day 2024 is Building Bridges. There is a lot of conflict and division in the world, and reaching out and communicating can help to heal the divides.

We hope you will attend our StoryFest on March 15, to hear stories from around the world, in celebration of World Storytelling Day.

And, if you want to continue the tradition:

National Tell a Story Day falls on April 27, 2024!

Upcoming Third Friday StoryFests:

Folktales from around the World

Friday, March 15th, 2024 – 7 PM Pacific Daylight Time on Zoom

Storytellers all over the world will celebrate World Storytelling Day on the Spring Equinox, and we're joining them a couple days early with a swap of stories from around the world.

Storytelling does build bridges between cultures. Please join with us on Zoom for this evening of tales.

Our line-up of volunteer storytellers includes

Do you have a favorite tale from somewhere around the world to share? Contact Judith Alexander (juditha5@earthlink.net) for a spot on our program.

Register for free at: <https://bit.ly/SSGMarStoryFest>

Suggested Donations of $10 or more for our StoryFest Programs are much appreciated at seattlestorytellers.org

TRICKSTER TALES, APRIL FOOLS

with Storyteller Maggie Lott

April 19th, 2024 - 7 PM Pacific Daylight Time on Zoom

Brer Rabbit-A.B. Frost 1896

Storyteller Maggie Lott explores with us the adventures of various trickster characters from African, African-American and Southern folktales as well as a personal tale of her own trickiness. Tricksters, ancient and present day, still want what they want and will get it however they can, scheming and breaking all the rules. She shares these playful, cunning and unpredictable characters, weaving humor and wisdom to leave us with wonder, inspiration, and laughter.

Maggie Lott loves to tell folktales coming from the American South, her home in her growing-up years. She feels drawn to the tales of the African American and the Appalachian traditions. She especially loves the trickster tales of Brer Rabbit and the humor of the European Jack tales preserved in the Southern Mountains. When she tells a story, she hears her long dormant Southern voice emerging.

She's been telling these tales with the South Sound Story Guild in Olympia for 20+ years. And with her classes of 2nd and 3rd graders. Maggie has also been exploring personal stories based on her Southern Heritage.

Once Upon a Happily Ever After: Alternative Story Structures

A Workshop with Bruce Marcus

Saturday May 18th 10am - 11:30am on Zoom

We will explore presenting tales in sequences other than the standard Beginning-Middle-Ending format, for more intriguing, sophisticated storycraft. This workshop is for storytellers, writers, filmmakers and anyone else involved in crafting and/or adapting stories.

Bruce Marcus has been the feature coordinator of The Story Space - a weekly Tuesday night storytelling event in the Boston Area for many years where he also often emcees and tells. (See below)

Register at: <https://bit.ly/SSGBruceMarcusWorkshop>

About The Story Space: 32 years of Weekly Storytelling!!

In February of 1992, Brother Blue and his wife, Ruth Edmonds Hill, started a weekly Storytelling series at the BookCellar Cafe, near Porter Square in Cambridge, Mass. where storytellers of all levels could come and tell their tales in a safe and nurturing environment. This was the World's only weekly Storytelling venue, and it soon became the longest lasting storytelling series in New England (and perhaps in the US). They met weekly, at least 50 weeks a year, for over 18 years, surviving four location changes. Eventually the torch was passed to six long-time attendees in 2010, and they have been The Story Space ever since.

Since 2021, it has been an online portal into the world of Storytelling, a friendly, cooperative venue where seasoned tellers and newcomers alike are received with full attention.

No Topics. No Competition. No Judging. Just all kinds of Stories!

The Story Space meets Every Tuesday • 6:45-9:00pm Eastern Time, online only until further notice
Invitations are posted weekly on their website: storyspace.org by 6 PM Eastern Time.

Storytellers of all ages, levels, & experience • First-time Tellers encouraged •

Open Telling (8-minute slots), followed by a feature storyteller. A flyer is available on their website.

GENE FRIESE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Gene Friese was a much-loved member of the Seattle storytelling community who passed away in 1995. Many storytellers in our area remember Gene and his troupe of bears that traveled with him to so many events.

A scholarship fund was established in his name. Its purpose is to support storytellers in their continuing education, through attending a storytelling festival, conference, workshop, or class.

In the past, the $100 award (or less) went to one or two recipients in the Fall for use during the school year. The Board will consider applications at other times, if funds are available. Please see below for the requirements for applying.

The scholarship fund has been augmented by gifts in the past several years, including gifts from John Wasko, and in honor of Glenn McCauley. Those wishing to donate may do so on the Guild's website in the Donation Jar or by mailing a check to the SSG Treasurer, Seattle Storytellers Guild, PO Box 18361, Seattle, WA 98118.

Please designate it for the Gene Friese Scholarship Fund.

To qualify for this scholarship, you must be a resident of Washington or Oregon and be a member of a storytelling guild in Washington or Oregon.

Your application must include the following:

- * Your name, address, phone number, email, and the storytelling guild to which you belong.
- * Your storytelling experience (beginners are encouraged to apply).
- * How you would like to use the scholarship money - a description of the event, limited to 300 words.

Note: The recipient must provide proof of the use of the scholarship (receipt, voucher, ticket stub, etc.) to receive reimbursement through the scholarship fund.

Send your application to the Seattle Storytellers Guild, Attn. Gene Friese Scholarship Committee, PO Box 18361, Seattle, WA 98118, or by email to Judith Alexander, juditha5@earthlink.net, with the subject heading: Gene Friese Scholarship Committee.

Seattle Storytellers Guild Board's News

We are looking for volunteers to join our Board. Consider coming to our Summer Planning Meeting and get a feel for who we are and what we do. Our board meets one evening monthly on Zoom—you won't even need to live nearby to join with us and we can use the help!

The Seattle Storytellers Guild is switching our bulk email provider from Mailchimp to AWeber. We expect a number of advantages to this change - but it will take us some time with the learning curve to the new software, and updating our lists. We send out Judith's Eblast twice a month, StoryFest and Swap announcements monthly, and send our newsletter, "In the Wind" quarterly. Those who have registered for events also receive Zoom reminders and follow up emails.

Our transferred list now has 860 subscribers! Previously, our list was broken down into several tags - Swaps, Storyfest, In The Wind, Eblast, etc. Currently it is not, so you may be receiving more emails from us than before. With time, we hope to create tagged lists built around your interests, and we ask your patience until we get this done. We do want to stay in touch without burdening you with excess email.

However, if you are no longer interested in any messages from us, please use the Unsubscribe at the bottom of our email which will take your name off our list. Hopefully soon, we will give folks opportunity to choose which messages they would like us to continue to send, once we figure out how. Stay tuned!

The Benefits of Joining the Seattle Storytellers Guild!

As a SSG member, you join a active community of story lovers, who plan and present regular events for listening to and for telling stories—with lots of opportunities to volunteer and help us promote oral storytelling in a variety of ways. Generally, there are 1, or 2 workshops per school year. A colorful quarterly newsletter arrives in your inbox, filled with news, events, articles and tips on storytelling. Monthly story swaps are intended for learning and practicing stories in a supportive environment, with helpful feedback, if desired. There are member discounts on certain programs and workshops.

We are not kidding when we say that "we need you!"

Now more comes with your Seattle Storytellers Guild membership

The Seattle Storytellers Guild recently became an Organizational Member of Story Crossroads – a non-profit Utah-based Storytelling Festival and Organization. Paid-up Guild Members have access to their exclusive content, including an archive of monthly articles, quarterly e-workbooks, and reduced prices for Story Crossroads Academy with its self-led tuition-based online storytelling courses. All this is a $50 value! If you are already a Guild member— contact Treasurer@seattlestorytellers.org to be added to our Organizational Membership group!

SSG Members get a discount when joining or renewing memberships in the National Storytelling Network. Contact Barry McWilliams for the Guild's membership discount code.

Professional SSG members can have a listing in the "Find a Storyteller" section of the Seattle Storytellers Guild website. Contact Larry Hohm at larry.hohm@gmail.com.

The Women's Storytelling Festival

Online and in-person, March 14 – 17, 2024.

The festival features 21 storytellers performing spoken word stories in a variety of styles, intended for a mature audience. This Festival is produced annually by Better Said Than Done.

ANNOUNCING THE 2024 WOMEN'S STORYTELLING FESTIVAL STORYTELLERS:

After a couple of recent two-hour organizational meetings, where the TBD Storytellers discussed all the work that goes into putting on the shows and what they want to concentrate on, they made the decision to continue with online shows. They have changed to a bi-monthly schedule. This is partly because the world is opening back up and they are finding themselves busier.
